SORRENTO, NAPLES

Striking Capri views

- 75-acre estate with stunning sea views
- Currently home to numerous businesses
- Possibility of creating a helipad

Located in the heart of the Sorrento Peninsula, this exclusive estate comprises a number of residences including a mansion, farm, several country houses, a restaurant, two towers, and a recently restored church. Home to several businesses, the main house has 2,142 sq ft of living space and dates back to the early 19th century, when it was constructed as a private home. Situated over four floors, highlights of this esteemed mansion include spacious lounge areas, numerous reception rooms, 11 bedrooms, and two panoramic terraces. The working farm encompasses approximately 75 acres and contains olive trees, vineyards, and citrus trees, while the two recently renovated country houses are extremely popular with agritourism holidaymakers. A breathtaking seafront location and a wealth of potential makes this property a dream proposition for the right buyer.
