STATE AND FINISHES

The original core of the hamlet dates back to the 17th century and was built along an important road connecting Florence with Arezzo and Siena. Buildings are made out of stone and masonry, in typical Tuscan rustic style, and have been carefully and masterfully restored so not to lose their fundamental features. In the apartments one can find wooden beams, terracotta floors and carved-stone jambs and frames.

The property is equipped with a dedicated Internet Wi-Fi connection reaching all the rooms.

EXTERNAL AREA

The property covers a surface of approx. 92.3 hectares, split among vineyards (11.3 ha), olive grove (1.1 ha), arable land (12.8 ha) and woodland (67.1 ha).

The complex is equipped with two beautiful salt-water swimming pool, respectively 17 x 8 m and 20 x 7 m. Right next to the pools, each apartment boasts a private gazebo with deck chair and solarium.

Not far from the building is located an ample parking area with canopies for car sheltering.
