APPARTAMENTO SANDRA

Inside a magnificent 16th-century Renaissance villa, set in a scenic 18th-century Italian park, is this refined ground-floor flat: a residence that perfectly combines the charm of history with the convenience of direct access to a particularly private portion of the villa's vast garden.

With an internal surface area of approximately 124 sqm (1,334 sqft), the residence stands out for the brightness of its rooms and the quality of its finishes, in a harmonious balance between architectural elegance and contemporary comfort. Among the most valuable details is a marvelous 16th-century pietra serena fireplace, which bears witness to the villa's history: at one time, these very rooms housed the ancient kitchens of the manor house.

The interior spaces are distributed in a functional manner, with a reception hall overlooking the eat-in kitchen, a practical utility room, a well-organized hallway, a master bedroom with en-suite bathroom, a second double bedroom and a main bathroom.

A distinctive element is its location on the ground floor, ideal for those who wish to live in close contact with nature, without architectural barriers. The condominium garden (8,000 sqm – 2.0 ac), accessible directly from the living area, represents a private and quiet oasis, perfect for moments of relaxation, reading or conviviality in the open air.

The property is completed by a cellar, a reserved parking space and, of course, access to one of the most fascinating historical towns in Tuscany, where art, nature and architecture come together in a setting of absolute beauty.

Perfect as a prestigious first home or as an elegant holiday residence, this property also represents an interesting investment opportunity in the high-end tourist rental circuit, thanks to the uniqueness of the context and the destination's strong international appeal.
