CASTELLO DI PAVONE

TURIN, PIEDMONT

- National Monument status
- Suitable space for a helipad

Overlooking the historic center of Piedmont, the awe-inspiring grandeur of this walled medieval castle is sublime. It is considered one of the most beautiful and important in Italy, and has been masterfully refurbished to showcase its exquisite original splendor. Superb stone walls, alluringly ornate wooden ceilings, frescoes, original fireplaces, and stained-glass windows are all resplendent. Currently used as a luxury 28-bedroom hotel, with 42 sumptuous baths, the castle is ideal for weddings and other ceremonies—though its 65 halls and 400-guest restaurant offer a wealth of other possible uses. Alternatively, the majestic complex would also make a remarkable private residence or an opulent representative seat for a company. The castle spans 48,438 sq ft (4,500 sq m) within the walls, with 3.7 acres (1.5 ha) of meadows and mixed woodland beyond, which delights with ornamental trees, flowers, and palms—a fabulous setting for the fascinating 9th-century church that is also part of this unique estate.
